Who we are

Who is providing this notice? American General Life Insurance Company and The United States Life Insurance Company in the City of New York.

What we do

How do AGL & US Life protect my personal information? To protect your personal information from unauthorized access and use, we use security measures that comply with federal law. These measures include computer safeguards and secured files and buildings. We restrict access to employees, representatives, agents, or selected third parties who have been trained to handle nonpublic personal information.

How do AGL & US Life collect my personal information? We collect your personal information, for example, when you

- apply for insurance or pay insurance premiums
- file an insurance claim or give us your income information
- provide employment information

We also collect your personal information from others, such as credit bureaus, affiliates, or other companies.

Why can't I limit all sharing? Federal law gives you the right to limit only

- sharing for affiliates' everyday business purposes—information about your creditworthiness
- affiliates from using your information to market to you
- sharing for nonaffiliates to market to you

State laws and individual companies may give you additional rights to limit sharing. See below for more on your rights under state law.
